The Publick having been impoſed on, by ſeveral very imperfect and erroneous Liſts of the Members of the Houſe of Commons, who voted for and againſt the late Convention with Spain; in which Queſtion, the Trade, Liberties and Honour of this Nation were ſo eſſentially concerned: It has been thought proper to do that Juſtice to the Gentlemen on both Sides they deſerve, by giving a more exact one. But if there ſhould be any Miſtake, it ſhall be acknowledged and corrected on Notice given in any of the publick Papers: And it is to be hoped the Nation will make this Liſt a Guide for their Conduct in all future Elections.

N. B. The underwritten Liſt ſhews, how large a Sum of Money is VISIBLY paid Yearly to Members of the Houſe of Commons, beſides what ſecret Favours may be conferred on them, their Relations, and Friends: Which in a leſs virtuous Houſe of Commons than this, would indanger the Conſtitution, and give an Ambitious Miniſter an Opportunity of gaining therein to Himſelf a Faction, which, contrary to Common Senſe, and their own Self-Conviction, would ſupport him and his pernicious Meaſures, to the Ruin of their Country. And muſt render the Attendance of thoſe Members that wiſh well to it, uſeleſs.

Teller for the Convention.

Thomas Winnington, Eſq; Lord of the Treaſury.
